OPENING DUA

سبحانك اللهم و بحمدك و تبارك اسمك و تعالى جدك و لا إله غيرك

SUBHAANAKALLHUMMA WA BI HAMDIKA WA TABAARAKASMUKA WA TA'AALA JADUKA WA LAA ILAAHA GHAYRUK

Translation:

O Allah there nothing imperfect about you and while you are the most perfect and blessed is your name and high and raised is your greatness and none is worth of being worship except you

Vocabulary:

1. Subhaana

2. Ka

3. Allahumma

4. Wa

5. Bi

6. Hamd

7. Tabaaraka

8. Ta'aala

9. Jad

10. Laa

11. Ilaaha

12. Ghayr

13. Ism

Explanation:

1. Subhaana[1]:

To say Allah has no imperfections and weaknesses this word shows Allah's greatness

2. Ka:

This means your or you[2] and we attach this word at end of any word like Rabuka (your master)

3. Allahumma:

This means O Allah as you are calling out to Allah

---

1 The word Subhaana comes from a word which means to float or swim which doesn't sink down and this word is to say how great Allah is his greatness is above and never sinks down as the floating on water which never sinks Allah's greatness is always perfect and never goes

2 When we say Subhaanaka we're saying "There is no weakness and imperfection in YOU." But if we said Subhaana with the Kaa (You) it would be saying that one is without imperfection and weakness without speaking directly with them.

in Dua[3]

4. Wa:

This means and like we say Muhammad WA Mahmmod Muhammad and Mahmood

5. Bi:

Means while

6. Hamdika:

The word Hamd is to describe with perfection and the word Ka means your[45]

7. Tabaaraka:

This word comes from Barakah which means blessings or a lot of magical goodness

---

3 In other words: "O Allah you are the one who has no weakness nor imperfection while you are the most perfect."

4 So perfection+your= Your perfection O Allah

5 so far we're are saying: "O Allah you have no weakness nor imperfection while being the most perfect."

8. Ismuka:

Ism means name and Ka means your[67]

Ism+Ka= your name

9. Ta'aala:

To be high and above

10. Jaduka:

The word Jad means greatness and Ka is yours

Jad+Ka= Your greatness

---

6 Ism+Ka= Your name

7 So your name has a lot of goodness full of perfect blessings and it is by mention Allah's name our roast chicken or chicken fillets becomes Halaal for us to eat if Allah's name isn't mention the meat isn't Halaal for us to eat

11. Laa:

This means No like in Laa Ilaaha Illallah which means theres no one worth of being worshiped excpet Allah

12. Ilaaha:

The Ilaah means someone who is worshipped like Allah is your Ilaah

13. Ghayruk:

The word Ghayr means other than or besides like Ghayr Allah means other than Allah

Meaning of the Dua:

O Allah you have no weakness and imperfections every about you is full of perfection anything that isn't perfect isn't you and your names are full of magical goodness your names bring goodness to everything and high and above is your greatness nothing is greater than you and none one deserves or is worth of being worshipped or prayered to except you because you created us all and keep us alive and know what our hearts hide and even the ants that crawl underground

1. Subhaanakallahumma

O Allah you have no weakness and imperfection in you

2. Wa Bi Hamdika

While you are the most perfect

3. Wa Tabaarakasmuka

And your name is full of magical goodness

4. Wa Ta'aala Jaduka

And high and above is your greatness

5. Wa Laa Ilaaha Ghayruk

And there is no one worthy being worshiped except you alone

Selected gems:

1. Allah has no weakness or imperfections

2. Everything about Allah is perfection only

3. All Allah's names are filled with magical goodness

4. Allah's greatness is greater than all

5. No one othan than Allah we make Dua to or prayer to this is Shirk
